Tammuz -Av 5776

From Your Rabbi...

It's hard to believe that I am beginning my twentieth year at K.I. and my fourth year as your rabbi and spiritual leader. Throughout my tenure, one of my main goals was to bring humor, informality, understanding and ruach into our traditional services (if you haven't been here in a while you should try us out), and at the same time create a deeper commitment to our rich heritage by studying together and discovering how the teachings of our Torah not only fulfill and enrich our lives, but are even more relevant to us in the twenty-first century.

Case in point: many people, both young and not-so-young, are searching for more spirituality in their lives. The challenge is that most people do not really know what they are searching for or what true spirituality really is. However, if we but look in our Torah, the answer is right there in front of us. Our Torah does not necessarily bid us to be spiritual, but it does repeatedly command us to be a holy people. The word used for this state of holiness is called kedusha. I recently found a beautiful explanation of how bringing holiness into our lives transforms us into more loving and caring human beings.

Kedusha is the highest spiritual virtue in Judaism. It is the singular quality of G-d that we are commanded to imitate. For all of G-d's infinity, this quality of G-d lies within our potential. But what is kedusha and how do we achieve it? The definition of kedusha has to do with separateness; that which is set apart for special purposes. The Shabbat is called Shabbat kodesh, a holy day set aside from the days of the week. The Jewish people are referred to as am kadosh, a holy people, set apart from the nations of the world.

Family and friends gather at a Shabbat or holiday table to celebrate life, to share stories, laughter, tears, and the triumphs and failures of our lives. We raise a cup of wine and recite a prayer of sanctification. But it isn't the wine that is sacred. The prayer affirms the holiness of the people around the table; the bonds that hold us together as a family and as friends. That prayer is called kiddush.

Two separate independent individuals, from different families and different cultures, find wholeness in one another. As the Torah states: "A man leaves his parents' house and cleaves to his wife and they become one flesh." They pledge to share life together. A ring is placed on a finger; a ring whole and unbroken symbolizing lives and dreams permanently intertwined. And we recite: Haray at m'kudeshet li -- "With

K.I. FRED DEVINKI RELIGIOUS SCHOOL NEWS

We are looking forward to the beginning of another great school year. Last year, with small intimate classes and great teachers, our students made much progress in their Judaic education and benefited from lots of individualized attention and differentiated instruction.

On Sunday, after morning prayers, our children learned the lessons of our weekly Torah portion, the meaning and rituals of our Jewish holidays and became more proficient at reading and understanding Hebrew. Wednesdays were devoted mostly to learning and understanding our prayers and the Hebrew language.

Our students also enjoyed our special programs. They lead the singing of Chanukah songs at our congregational Chanukah party, including their own creative verses for "I have a little dreidel." They learned about Tu B'shvat and experienced a kabbalistic Tu B'shvat seder, assembled mishloach manot baskets with hamentashen that they made (and tasted!). There were many other fun learning activities throughout the year. This coming year, classes will be held on Sunday mornings and Tuesday afternoons, and will have a similar learning schedule as this past year. The first day of religious school will be on Tuesday, August 23, and Sunday classes will begin on September 11. We are planning even more enjoyable and fun activities for the coming school year.

I would also add that due to the generosity of the Devinki/Pack/Kolkin families, our school is tuition free (with a small book/supply fee), and enrollment is open to children of the entire Jewish community. If you know of any family that is looking for a quality Jewish education for their child/ren, please spread the word.

For questions or further information, please contact Rachel Macek at macek.rachel@gmail.com or call the synagogue office.

Religious School Director*

Tisha B'Av (the ninth day of the Jewish month of Av) is a day of mourning during which Jews fast and bewail the destruction of the Temple and Jerusalem. Along with Yom Kippur, it is the only full day fast on our calendar. This fact alone should impress upon us the importance that is placed on the observance of this day for all Jews. The preceding period, known as the "three weeks" that began with the Fast of Tammuz on Sunday, July 24, is considered to be the saddest time in the Jewish calendar when all evidence of joy disappears until the conclusion of Tisha B'Av.

Since World War II, many Jews have chosen Tisha B'Av as the day to commemorate the (yahrzeit) loss of those family members who were killed by the Nazis and their associates on dates that are unknown. The Talmud states that G-d decreed this particular day as a day of woe and misfortune in the very beginning of Jewish history. According to this interpretation, the ninth of Av was the day when the Jews in the desert of Sinai bewailed their lot when the spies brought back bad tidings from Canaan (Parshat Shelach). So G-d declared: "You cried without cause; I will, therefore, make this an eternal day of mourning for you." And it was then that the decree was ordered for the destruction of the Temple, and the scattering of the Jews amongst the peoples of the earth.

Another Great Golf Tournament

The “place to be” on June 20th was Oakwood Country Club for K.I.’s 17th Annual Allan Greenberg Memorial Golf Tournament. The hard work by Tournament Chair Richard Glass, Volunteer Chair Marlene Krakow, Coordinator Elizabeth Peden and many other volunteers and sponsors insured that it was a fun day, both on the green and in the clubhouse.

Everyone was treated to a VAAD supervised luncheon buffet, headed up by Dan Kass. Liberty Fruit provided the produce and fruit throughout the day. Thanks to the silent auction many people went home with a “great deal” on a wide variety of items, and everyone left with fun goody bag “swag.”

SAVE THE DATE for our next golf tournament on Monday, June 12, 2017!
