From Your Rabbi... From Your President...

On July 1st, I was honored to begin my two year term as the president of the Rabbinical Association of Greater Kansas City. I am currently experiencing a mix of feeling honored, humbled, and a little bit scared. The politics of one's own shul are usually enough to keep one well occupied; now I get to deal with the collective politics of all of our shuls!

Of course, I say this all a bit tongue in cheek. You might not believe me when I say this, but we rabbis in town actually all get along quite well. This is, unfortunately, not to be taken for granted. Perhaps it's a function of Kansas City having a relatively small Jewish community that our various shuls just can't afford to be too divided from each other.

In any case, our community is not actually quite so small as you might think. The long awaited survey of our Jewish community recently came out. I encourage everyone to get ahold of it and peruse it. It turns out there are just over 20,000 Jews in the greater Kansas City area. That's not just a tiny shtetl where everyone knows each other, even while also not being as large as the New Yorks and Los Angeleses of the world.

In August we observe Tisha B'Av, the saddest day of the Jewish year, commemorating the destruction of both Temples in Jerusalem. The Talmud teaches that our Temple was destroyed, and our sovereignty in Israel lost, due to the rampant hatred that existed within the Jewish community at that time. Rabbi Abraham Isaac Kook, the first Ashkenazi Chief Rabbi of the modern day Jewish community in Israel, taught that if the Temple was destroyed due to unbridled hatred, it can only be rebuilt through the power of unbridled love. "Unbridled" means that even when you don't think someone deserves it, you extend them some extra grace and affinity anyway. It's easy to preach that way of acting in the world, but much harder to actually embody it.

In our politically charged time, and in this season of our commemoration of great historical tragedy, let's try to embody some of that unrestrained love and do our small part to help heal the world.

Rabbi Moshe Grussgott

With the arrival of the month of July, you can be sure that summer is upon us. This is the season when people take vacations or take extended time to visit their families elsewhere. This summer is especially a busy traveling season due to the fact that people have been hesitant to travel due to covid restrictions and isolation for the last two years.

My family and I were fortunate to attend three simchas on the west coast—two weddings of two nephews and our first gender reveal party. Speaking of weddings, Cantor Hayoun's son, Elkahan, got married in July in France in a beautiful outdoor ceremony.

By the time this publication reaches you, Rabbi Grussgott and family are back from their vacation, and Cantor Hayoun will be visiting his family in Israel and France.

We are very fortunate to have Rabbi Mandl in the wings to fill in for Rabbi Grussgott while he was on vacation.

I am also pleased to welcome back Karen Smith, an integral part of our office staff, from her medical leave.

Soon we will have our second Musical Kabbalat Shabbat and dinner catered by our WOKIs. The first one was an elegant and delicious Friday night meal, also catered by our WOKIs. If you missed the first one, try to catch the next ones.

Tisha B'Av is on August 7, followed by Shabbat Nachamu. It is a Persian Jewish tradition on this special Shabbat, which follows three weeks of mourning and a 24 hour fast, to celebrate with a picnic, especially around water. It is a tradition to splash water or spray each other with water. Children take this activity very seriously and have a lot of fun by using squirt guns nowadays.

I hope everyone had a fantastic summer, even with the extremely hot temperatures and humidity of the Midwest. We are looking forward to seeing you all back to the synagogue.

Joe Adamous, President

Tisha B'Av (the ninth day of the Jewish month of Av) is a day of mourning during which Jews fast and bewail the destruction of the Temple and Jerusalem. Along with Yom Kippur, it is the only full day fast on our calendar. This fact alone should impress upon us the importance that is placed on the observance of this day for all Jews. The preceding period, known as the “three weeks,” that began with the Fast of Tammuz on Sunday, July 17, is considered to be the saddest time in the Jewish calendar, when all evidence of joy disappears until the conclusion of Tisha B'Av.

Since World War II, many Jews have chosen Tisha B'Av as the day to commemorate the (yahrzeit) loss of those family members who were killed by the Nazis and their associates on dates that are unknown. The Talmud states that G-d decreed this particular day as a day of woe and misfortune in the very beginning of Jewish history. According to this interpretation, the ninth of Av was the day when the Jews in the desert of Sinai bewailed their lot when the spies brought back bad tidings from Canaan (Parshat Shelach). So G-d declared: “You cried without cause; I will, therefore, make this an eternal day of mourning for you.” And it was then that the decree was ordered for the destruction of the Temple, and the scattering of the Jews amongst the peoples of the earth.

* When Tisha B'Av occurs on Saturday night, we do not recite the regular Havdalah. It is postponed to Sunday night. We do recite a blessing over either a Havdalah candle or an electric light, and that is the total Havdalah for that evening. Sunday night, when the fast ends, we recite Havdalah over a beverage, and we recite the last paragraph of the Havdalah only.

COMMUNITY CORNER.....

COMMUNITY-WIDE COURSE: "JUDAISM FOR CONVERSION CANDIDATES" BEGINS IN AUGUST

Do you know someone considering conversion to Judaism and seeking a comfortable forum to learn more about the fundamentals of Jewish thought and practice? Interested candidates are asked to contact the Rabbinical Association to learn how they can register to participate in this year's community-wide course, "Judaism for Conversion Candidates," which begins August 18.

The comprehensive year-long course is designed for adult individuals and taught on a rotating basis by rabbis from the Reform, Conservative, Orthodox and non-denominational movements. Classes are intended to acquaint those considering conversion to Judaism with what it means to live Jewishly. This program allows future Jews-by-choice the opportunity to meet one another and to learn not only about Judaism, but also about the Kansas City Jewish community. Each student is required to secure a congregational rabbinic sponsor by February 1 and meet the conversion requirements developed by their rabbinic sponsor.

Classes will take place virtually via Zoom on Thursday evenings from 7:00-9:00 pm, and some sessions will be held in person and may rotate among the synagogues and Jewish Community Campus.

An orientation session is scheduled for August 11, 7:00-9:00 pm. Visit kcrabbi.org for information. To register, contact Annette Fish, Rabbinical Association Administrator/Program Director, 913.327.8226 or by email at afprogram@aol.com.

Funding for this Rabbinical Association program is generously provided by the Menorah Heritage Foundation and the National Center to Encourage Judaism. This course is taught through a collaborative educational partnership with the Miller Introduction to Judaism Program of American Jewish University
