As Jacob prepares to take on the challenges and responsibilities of this endeavor, we want to show our support and appreciation for his dedication to serving our country. This brunch will be an opportunity for all of us to come together to offer Jacob our heartfelt support and best wishes for his future success!

Please RSVP by May 16th to kehilathisraelmensclub@gmail.com. Your presence would mean a great deal. Look forward to seeing you at the brunch and celebrating this occasion.

ISRAEL UPDATE - May 10, 2024

Israel Begins Necessary Operation in Rafah to Defeat Hamas

On Tuesday, Israel began a limited operation in the eastern part of Rafah to locate and destroy Hamas' terrorist infrastructure, taking control of the crossing point on the Egypt-Gaza border. Rafah is Hamas' final stronghold in southern Gaza, where four of its terrorist battalions remain. Israeli troops began this operation after Hamas rejected a U.S.-brokered agreement supported by Israel to release some hostages in exchange for a temporary pause in fighting. Israeli Prime Minister Netanyahu's office said the operation was launched "in order to apply military pressure on Hamas, with the goal of making progress on freeing the hostages and the other war aims." Israel has taken unprecedented steps to evacuate civilians and surge aid to Gaza ahead of this operation, even as Hamas continues to attack. On Sunday, Hamas terrorists operating near Rafah fired rockets at the Kerem Shalom humanitarian aid crossing point, killing four Israeli soldiers and wounding 10. The United States must continue to ensure Israel has the resources and support needed to win this war and prevent Hamas from ever again carrying out a massacre of Israeli families.
