UNDERSTANDING THE HAGGADAH

Thursday nights at 7pm

March 28 at the home of Sharon & Geoff Friedman

Last date time and location will be forthcoming

Do you find parts of the Haggadah to be confusing and difficult to follow?

The Haggadah is one of the most commonly read Jewish texts, but it can be perplexing to decode its style, message and underlying patterns.

This class will convey the fundamental "order" (which is the meaning of the word "Seder") of the texts and rituals of the Haggadah, making everything clear and comprehensible in time for your Pesach Seder!

Impress and inspire your Seder guests or hosts with your erudition.
Hope to see you there!

ISRAEL UPDATE -- March 15, 2019

Hezbollah Entrenching Itself in Syrian Golan, Establishing Terror Infrastructure, Israeli Army Says

Hezbollah has recruited dozens to hundreds of men to fight Israel from villages on the Syrian side of the Golan Heights, and local people have begun gathering intelligence for the effort, Israeli defense officials said Wednesday, Haaretz reported. The fighters, who receive monthly wages, have explosives, small arms including submachine guns, and anti-tank missiles. The operation, known as the Golan File, is being run by Hezbollah commanders in Beirut. It has been kept a secret from Syrian President Bashar Assad, Israeli intelligence sources say. Israel has thus far put a serious dent in the Iranians' attempts to establish themselves in Syria and upgrade the accuracy of Hezbollah's missiles, but Tehran and its affiliated Shi'ite militias are apparently still seeking ways to gain a toehold along the border. In May 2013, at the height of Syria's civil war, Assad let Shi'ite forces reach the Golan and initiate minor confrontations with Israel; in this way, Assad could divert attention from other events in Syria. Hezbollah also ramped up its presence near the Israeli border. According to Hezbollah official media, in January 2015 an Israeli helicopter fired missiles at a car in the Syrian province of Quneitra near Israel; one of the people killed was Jihad Mughniyeh, Hezbollah's chief in the Golan. [...] Intelligence sources say Hezbollah's next planned move is to transfer weapons to the border area such as rockets, but the group is believed to be having a hard time finding ways to achieve this amid fears Israel would destroy the rockets.
