

THE FOCAL POINT

Vol. 50, Issue 2

FEBRUARY 2014

ADAR I 5774

From the President...

When you read this month's Focal Point article I will have presided over my first officers' meeting and Board of Directors meeting as congregational president. One project we hope to complete very soon is our K.I. Bylaws update project. We will be providing a redlined copy to the congregation which outlines the changes requested compared to the current language. I will also be providing a brief overview of the changes being requested and what the changes mean as compared to the current bylaws language. By providing this overview it is my sincere hope that my explanation will dispel any appearance of impropriety, by just trying to pass the bylaws changes requested without a proper explanation of what the changes mean to the document and therefore the congregation. It is my hope that we can conclude this process in the near future.

We are currently seeking three competitive bids for what I'm calling an audit but in reality will actually be a review. My understanding is that there are three basic types of audits, ranging from an indepth forensic audit, to what is known as a compilation. What we are looking for is a review which fits squarely in-between these other two. A review is done to get some assurance that our financial statements do not have known errors or departures from generally accepted accounting principles. It requires the CPA performing the review to be independent of our shul, perform inquiry and analytical procedures, and, if necessary, additional procedures as required if information obtained is questionable in any way. The accountant's report will then state that said report has been performed in accordance with AICPA professional standards and that nothing was found requiring material modifications for our statements to be in conformity with GAAP. To make this more understandable to the rest of us, it means they didn't find any significant errors or omissions in our documentation and that we are following the proper rules, procedures and

From the Rabbi's Study...

Over the past two months I have shared with you my thoughts about what the role of a rabbi should be and what makes a thriving congregation. This month I would like to share with you some thoughts on what defines a shul/synagogue.

The synagogue should be the center of Jewish congregational life. It's where we go to pray as a congregation, to connect with our Creator, to connect with one another, to learn about and discuss Jewish topics, current events and anything and everything else we want to discuss amongst each other. It's where we go to teach our children about Judaism, to celebrate our joyous Jewish holidays and share meals together and maybe even find that special someone to share our life together.

Over the years, I have heard all the negative experiences that people have experienced in their shuls when growing up; an insensitive rabbi, a tyrannical Hebrew teacher, a stuffy and formal service, the list goes on and on. Forget the past. Then was then and now is now. It's a new day and a new way of operating. Times are different now and so are you. There are so many good things happening, great programs on the horizon, and so many new and good people becoming involved in all aspects of our shul.

As the rabbi of K.I., I encourage you to GET REACQUAINTED WITH THE SYNAGOGUE. Once you take that first step and begin attending Shabbat services, you may actually find it habit-forming and start to look forward to Shabbat mornings, sitting with and seeing the same people, catching up with them, hearing the Torah Parasha (portion) discussed each week, sharing in the happy occasions and enjoying a delicious kiddush and schmoozing. There's a lot that happens in shul on Shabbat morning and it just might surprise you how good and interesting and joyful it is.

Of course there are many different reasons to go to shul. You can go for the socialization if you wish; that's a perfectly good reason to go. Many people find it's an effective anti-depressant to put on some decent clothes and go hear some great stories (from the Torah) and uplifting ideas, usually a pretty thoughtful sermon, some beautiful and spiritual prayers and songs, and then the kiddush - "refreshments!" It's really quite nice and something that I really look forward to.

Judaism is so RICH with good stuff - important ideas and ideals - challenging concepts - DEPTH - a group of bright

CUB SCOUT PACK 3153 25 years of serving boys from throughout the community!

By the time the February issue of the K.I. Focal Point is published, Cub Scout Pack 3153 will have held its annual Pinewood Derby, our January "mega-event." Results from this 2014 Derby will be published next month.

February will be a big month for the Cub Scout Pack, as we will be celebrating our 25th ANNIVERSARY in grand fashion. Just to note: over that time, we have had 448 individuals directly involved with our Pack, including 322 youth and 126 registered adult volunteer leaders.

The festivities will begin with Scout Shabbat on February 8th in the K.I. sanctuary, and conclude with the Blue and Gold Banquet on Sunday, February 16th in the K.I. Social Hall. We hope that we will have a sizeable attendance at both functions, with Pack alumni joining us at both the Scout Shabbat services and kiddush reception, sponsored by the K.I. Men's Club and the Pack, following, as well as at the Blue & Gold Banquet and program. The entire congregation and friends of Scouting are cordially invited and urged to attend both events, along with Pack 3153's Scouts, leaders, alumni, and current and former Scouts from throughout the community.

This year, through the Pack's religious award workshop program, we have had a record, 19 boys, completed the requirements for the two Cub Scout Jewish Religious awards, the Maccabee and Aleph medals. These boys will be acknowledged at the February 8th Scout Shabbat service, and along with the Pack, its leadership, alumni, friends, and fellow scouts, will participate in the service. The Blue and Gold Banquet and program will begin at 4:00 p.m. on Sunday, February 16th, and this year will feature the Tribe of Mic-O-Say's White Cloud Indian Dance Team following the dinner.

Questions and additional information regarding Scout Shabbat and the Blue & Gold Banquet (including reservations) should be directed to Ted Goldstein at 913.642.8023 / tgoldstein@kc.surewest.net. Cub Scout Pack 3153 ALUMNI (youth and adult leaders) are urged to contact Jill Goldstein (at the same contact numbers.)

Purim is March 15 & 16! Wow! Can you believe it? The time to order K.I.'s Mishloach Manot baskets is now!

It's a mitzvah on Purim to send baskets to all your friends and family. You can do this with a Mishloach Manot basket from K.I.! Let us do the work; it's easier than buying things at the mall!

Become a Purim Patron for only $180 and send baskets to the ENTIRE congregation or choose individuals where the first basket is $12 and additional ones are $6 each.

You will receive a separate mailing from K.I. with members' names to circle. If you are going to be a Purim patron, just send your check for $180 to the synagogue and notate Purim patron in the memo line (you do not need to circle names as a Purim patron).

We thank you so much for participating in this project and sending K.I.'s Mishloach Manot baskets for Purim this year.

With good wishes for a Happy Purim
The Mishloach Manot Committee
